ANOTHER POWER LINE TO BE CONSTRUCTED

RIGHTS OF WAY FROM GAFFNEY
TO RUTHERFORDTON
SECURED

THE MATERIAL

Is Now Being Shipped to Gaffney
And Work is Expected To Begin In Near Future

The following from The Gaffney Ledger is of local interest:

E. R. Goodwyn, a representative of the Southern Power company, who has been spending the past two or three weeks in Gaffney securing a right-of-way from Gaffney to Rutherfordton, N. C., for the purpose of running a power line between these points, has about completed his work successfully. It is reported that a site upon which a sub-station will be erected has been secured in Gaffney also. The proposed line will run by way of Forest City and Rutherfordton, at all of which power will be furnished to the mills. Poles and other material for erecting this line are now being shipped to Gaffney.

The Electric Manufacturing and Power company has a plant at Gaston Shoals on Broad river from which it has been furnishing power for Gaffney for several years and, so far, as is known, the service is satisfactory. The Southern Power company also has a plant located on Broad river, this being at Ninety-nine islands, which is several miles further from Gaffney.

The Southern Power company is controlled by J. H. Duke and company. A short time ago it was announced that the Duke policy would be to assist in building one cotton mill per year in towns located on the Piedmont or Northern electric line, which is controlled by this company. It has been stated by high officials that the missing link of this road between Spartanburg and Gastonia will be constructed as soon as business conditions warrant the expenditure that this would necessitate. This may possibly indicate developments in the near future that will be of immense benefit to Gaffney and this immediate section.

MR. WALTER BARTON FALLS FROM WAGON; PAINFULLY HURT

Riding on a wagon that was coming out from the rear of Rosenberg's store into Peoples street late yesterday afternoon, Mr. Walter Barton, a well known young man of this city, lost his balance and fell headforemost to the brick pavement. Mr. Barton had a bucket of paint in his hand and was covered with the fluid when picked up. He was thought severely hurt at first, but when the paint was washed from his head and face the skin was found intact.

Information from his father's home last night was that he was none the worse for his experience, with the exception of a few painful bruises.

COOPER SPEAKS TO A CROWD AT EASLEY

Several Hundred Hear Gubernatorial
Candidate—Petition
For Compulsory Education
Circulated

Easley, May 30.—At a recent meeting of the William Easley Chapter United Daughters of Confederacy Mrs. Dora Walker, state home demonstration agent, Miss Frances Mauldin agent, and G. W. Coggin, superintendent of the schools here, appeared before the chapter in an effort to get them to agree to equip a room suitable to the training of domestic science in the central school. Immediate action on the matter was deferred but this week a special call meeting was held and the chapter agreed to meet the request of the committee. No specified fund was limited, the agreement being to fit it up first class in every particular. In doing this the chapter required the board of trustees of the school to provide a teacher for this department. Miss Mauldin is to give the class two days each week and an effort is being by the trustees to secure a grade teacher that can also give some time to the class.

Under the direction of Mr. Coggin an up-to-date wood shop for the boys has been installed and much interest is being taken in that branch of work. The domestic science department will give the girls an opportunity to receive an additional course to the regular literary training and will no doubt prove most beneficial to them in their future years.

Hon. E. P. McCravy, endorsed by the best citizens of town, is today circulating a petition asking for compulsory education in this school district, which complies the act of Easley alone. Plans for this have been on foot for many months and is being cheerfully signed by the citizens who are anxious to see the law put into effect here.

Hon. R. A. Cooper spoke to a crowd of several hundred people here Saturday afternoon, being en route to his home after delivering the literary address to the graduating class at Liberty Friday evening. His hearers were most enthusiastic and were loud in their praises of the many valuable thoughts expressed in his address. Mr. Cooper, of course, did not refer to politics but expressed the value and need of education and spoke of the personal responsibilities of each citizen.

The body of J. K. Glasner who was a private in Company M, 25th Infantry and who was drowned at Mission, Texas, the earlier part of the week, arrived here Saturday and was carried to his father's home, some three miles from town. Interment was made Sunday at Cross Roads church.

Worshippers Do Not Dance.
(Georgetown, Del. Dispatch Philadelphia Record.)

People going to church the other evening began to execute strange dances on one of the main corners of Georgetown. Many never went any further. They sat on the corner on their way to church. While others bravely continued their way.

The trouble was nothing but a swarm of bees in the grass plot, but they covered this up so nicely that a score of people were misled before they found out the trouble.

NEW STORE ROOM TO TAKE PLACE OF OLD

LAST OF GRANITE FRONT
BUILDINGS TO BE TORN AWAY

TO START TODAY

And New Building Will Be Built
Instead of Remodeling As
First Decided Upon

Work of tearing out the old store room on the east side of the public square, formerly occupied by Mr. A. W. Kay, will be begun this morning under the supervision of Mr. W. W. Johnson, who announced yesterday that the entire building would be torn away and a new one erected.

Mr. Kay has this week moved his stock of goods into the Sellman building on South Main street and will continue in business there.

As was announced several weeks ago, the new building is to be erected for Woolworth & company, who will begin to operate one of their five and ten cent stores in Anderson on September 1. It was announced at first that the building would only be remodeled, but it has been decided to build a new one.

The tearing down of this old building removes the last of the store rooms on that side with granite fronts, which gave the name of Granite Row to that side of the square.

Convention of Masons.
Florence, May 30.—The Masons of Florence have invited the district deputy, Dr. T. E. Wannamaker of Orangeburg, to call a convention here in June and to invite the grand lodge. It is very probable that the convention will be one of the largest and most interesting that has been held in the state. The third degree will be conferred here at the time. Dr. Wannamaker is busying himself in the matter now. He will issue a call in a short while, and Florence promises to take care of the visitors. The local committee is Dr. L. D. Baskin, worshipful master of Hampton lodge; past masters E. M. Matthews, J. W. McCown, C. B. Ham, J. W. Ivy and Junior warden, C. M. McCurry.

Grand Master F. A. Cooper is very much interested in the proposed convention.
